4.55pm Welcome & Introduction

5.00pm Digital Transformation in Pharmaceutical R&D, the Evinova story
Matt Bonam, Head of Digital Health, Evinova

From beginning life as an R&D transformation program in 2018 through the evolution into a digital health organisation within AstraZeneca to the formation of Evinova, the AZ team behind Evinova has created value in partnership with AstraZeneca's R&D organisation. Through being science led and evidence based, Evinova has delivered proven and published results demonstrating that it is possible to use digital solutions to accelerate clinical development, reduce development costs and improve outcomes. In this session, Evinova will describe how they've done this, what Evinova has learnt along the way, and what Evinova intends to do next.

5.45pm AI in life sciences and healthcare
Sarah Cowlshaw, Partner, Covington
Daniel Pavin, Partner, Covington

In this session, lawyers in Covington's regulatory and life sciences transactions teams will discuss:

- the evolving approach to regulation of AI in life sciences and healthcare
- commercial risk areas and mitigation strategies when contracting for AI solutions
